

TABLE of CONTENTS

Introduction: Supporting the DDES Course

Welcome

SECTION 1: Defining Developmental Designs Core Beliefs: Equitable Teaching and Learning

Three Rings of Student Connectedness	2
Developmental Designs Guiding Principles	3
Developmental Designs for Pre-K–6 Teaching Practices	4
SCARF: Addressing Human Needs at School	10
SEL and Trauma-Informed Teaching	11

SECTION 2: Knowing Our Students

Brain Development: Dan Siegel's Hand Model of the Brain	34
What the Experts Say: Supporting Neurodiverse Kids	36
Knowing Our Students Individually, Culturally, Developmentally	39
General Developmental Trends and Science	42

SECTION 3: Creating Predictable Routines

Setting Goals and Creating a Social Contract With Elementary Students	58
Three Strategies to Teach Routines: Modeling, Exploratory Modeling, Role-Play	64
Exploratory Modeling	70
Role-Play	73
Reflection Guide: When Routines Get Off Track	76

SECTION 4: Using Language That Empowers

Empowering Language	82
Directing Language	84
Reflecting Language	86
Reinforcing Language	88
Reminding Language	89
Redirecting Language	92
Nonverbal Communication	93
Adult Language Pitfalls	97
Empowering Language Practice Scenarios	100

TABLE of CONTENTS

SECTION 5: Building Strong and Supportive Community Relationships

Community Circles in Developmental Designs	106
Community Circles All Day Long	129

SECTION 6: Empowering Students' Agency and Academic Engagement

Empowering Student Voice in Academic Engagement	146
Ways to Create Choices for Students' Experiences	154

SECTION 7: Equitable Discipline: Addressing Mistakes to Retakes

Discipline: Mistakes to Retakes	160
Mistakes to Retakes Pathways to Self-Control: Equitable Discipline Tools	166

SECTION 8: Providing Opportunities to Explore Individual and Community Identities

Equity and Identity	202
Classroom Space Identity: Classroom Organization	206
Adult Community Identity	208

APPENDIX

Sustaining DD All Day	216
Bibliography	248
DDES Daily Reflection	252